THE GAZETTE.

TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 16.

Miscellaneous Itoms. It is said that the income of Mr. John D. Rockefeller, of the Standard Oll Company, has reached $9,000,000 a year.

Chestaut trees have been cut down in Erle county, Pa, the rings of which indicated that they were fully a thousand years old.

The widow of John C. Heenan, once the American champion slugger, still lives in retirement at San Francisco. She is an actress, and is known chiefly by her stage name, Sara Stevens.

The little boy was on his knees it his little night-dress saying his prayers, and his little sister couldn't resist the temptation to tickle the soles of his little feet. He stood it as long as he could, and then he said: "Please, God, excuse me while I knock the stuffing out of Nellie."

"When a man dies suddenly, without heving been attended by a doctor," says a popular guide to the law, "the coroner has to be called in and an inquest held to ascertain the cause of death. But," adds the writer, "when he dies, after having been attended by a doctor, then everybody knows why he died, and an inquest is not necessary."
